

JENNIFER BRITTON

BIOGRAPHY

A former leader in the international humanitarian sector, Jennifer spent most of the 90s and early 2000s leading geographically dispersed teams, across countries and regions that took five days to traverse. These experiences shaped her passion and insights around what is possible in the remote, hybrid, and virtual space.

An expert in group and team coaching, performance improvement and an award-winning program designer, Jennifer founded her company, Potentials Realized, in 2004 to support groups, teams, and organizations in the areas of leadership, teamwork, and performance.

A trusted ally to thousands of coaches, business owners, teams, and organization, Jennifer has dedicated her professional work over the last few decades to enhancing conversations, and supporting results for business, teams, and organizations in the virtual, remote, and hybrid space. This work led to Jennifer's sixth book Reconnecting Workspaces: Pathways to Thrive in the Virtual, Remote, and Hybrid world. This book will be followed by the 90 Day Guide to Virtual, Remote, and Hybrid Work.
