

Jennifer Britton named Top Project Management Influencer by Fit Small Business

(New York City, October 29th, 2018) Jennifer Britton has been named a Top Project Management Influencer by Fit Small Business. Britton provides outstanding project management and team development advice and suggestions to her over 1,100 Twitter and over 900 Facebook followers.

Fit Small Business, a publication for small business owners, awards its Top Influencer award to those who have shown excellence in their field. The site carefully considers an influencer's expertise, credentials, social media presence, and success before choosing the best.

Fit Small Business connects small business owners with its experts who conduct extensive research and tests of various products and services, and interview industry specialists to provide the best recommendations and solutions. They keep their focus on a variety of topics that are of interest to any small business owner, including accounting, sales, marketing, and human resources, and the content attracts more than two million visitors to their site per month.

Jennifer Britton is the founder and CEO of Potentials Realized, an award-winning Canadian Performance Improvement company that facilitates skills training, coaching, and team performance services. Britton is also the author of four books including "Effective Virtual Conversations" and "Coaching Business Builder Workbook and Planner."

They do the research so small business owners don't have to.
<http://www.fitsmallbusiness.com>